

This is an exciting election year - one that has inspired so many community members to get involved and make a commitment to defending democracy. Making the choice to run for West Orange Town Council has been one of the best decisions I've ever made because it has given me the opportunity to build strong relationships with our residents and get an inside look at ways our municipal government can make our town better.

We have been working day and night to reach all West Orange residents, making sure we are listening to their concerns, and thinking through ways we can help address them. I know that by really connecting with each other and finding ways to work together, we can make West Orange Town Council a great example of what responsive, local government looks like. I am tremendously grateful for all of your support and appreciate every single contribution made to this campaign.

I want to be clear about my choice to run as an independent progressive candidate and not as part of any slate of candidates. I do not want to be a part of an "us vs. them mentality" and I believe that the divisive partisan politics we see playing out, will not bring the change we need to make our community a more inclusive place. If we want to make positive change in West Orange, we have to ensure we are listening to the voices from all parts of our community. Let's continue to do the work, reach out to all of our neighbors, and push forward together.

Thank you so much for your support.

Cindy
